ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS: FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. May be taken before a Judge of the Supreme Court or County official seal, or a Justice of the Peace in his county within this Province; without this Court, a member of either Council, a Registrat of Deeds, a Notary Public under his Province before a Commissioner of affidavits, acting under the statute or one appointed by the Lord Chancellor in Chancery in England; a Notary Public under his seal of office, the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of a Borough, or Municipality under the official seal; an English Minister, Ambassador, Consul or Vice-Consul, or the Governor of a State under their official seals.

AFFIDAVITS. May be taken before a Commissioner of affidavits within the Province, and before a Commissioner authorized by law to take oaths, or a Notary Public, without the Province.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit showing indebtedness and the amount due an order may be obtained authorizing the issue of the writ; when the action is for an uncertain sum or for damages, upon due application to the Judge, writ may be obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be made to the Sheriff of the county, unless a majority in value of the creditors consent to another disposition; assignee must give notice to creditors of meeting within five days of the date of the assignment, to be had within twelve (12) days after notice, claims filed by the creditors must be verified and the assignee must prepare his account as assignee one month thereafter and then every three months. Preferences vitiate the assignment unless made for bona fide present advances.

ATTACHMENTS. May only issue after judgment.

BILLS OF SALE. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Must be registered within thirty days after execution, together with an affidavit of the witness and of the mortgagee, or his agent, that the indebtedness is just and true, that the mortgage is bona fide as security and not for the purpose of preventing the creditors of the mortgagor from reaching the goods; a lien for a year may be renewed by filing an affidavit, and statement setting forth the amount due.

CONDITIONAL SALES. Statement thereof must be filed with the registrar of purchaser's County within ten days after execution, and a copy of such statement must be left with vendee within tweny days thereafter and twenty days after demand of the creditors every vendor, etc., must file with the Registrar a verified statement of the amount due, in defaul of which he forfeits his rights under the conditional sale as against such demanding creditor.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

DOWER. Life estate to widow in one-third of realty of which husband died seized.

EXEMPTIONS. Money due from the Crown to an individual in the hands of an officer for the purpose of payment to said individual is exempt from attachment in garnishment proceedings.

GARNISHMENT. Upon examination of the debtor after judgment, debts found due to him may be garnished, save earnings to the extent of twenty dollars.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Dominion Day (July 1), Labor Day (1st Monday in September), December 25, Sovereign's birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement any rate.

JUDGMENTS. Lives for twenty years. A lien for five years upon lands after recording in the Registry Office, may be renewed while the judgment lives.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. No specific provisions.

LIMITATIONS. Sixty years: Perfects adverse possession in the case of the Crown. Twenty years: To recover land. Six years: Upon contract, notes or deeds. Two years: For slander, assault and battery and other torts.

MARRIED WOMEN. May carry on business, make contracts and dispose of her property practically the same as unmarried women.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bill not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-juridical day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-juridical day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. Upon filing a bond in double the value to the Sheriff in a case where property has been wrongfully taken or detained, a writ of replevin may issue.

NOVA SCOTIA

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. None used. Affidavits take their place.

AFFIDAVITS. To prove deeds may be taken before a Registrar or Judge of the Supreme or County Court, a Barrister of the Supreme Court, a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner of the Supreme Court or a Notary Public within the Province; without the Province before a Commissioner appointed to take affidavits; a Judge of a Court of Record, a Mayor or Recorder of a corporation, a Notary Public, British Minister, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, other affidavits may be taken before the Judge of a Court of Record, a Notary Public, or a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of the Province, or an English Consul.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit showing cause of action in a sum over twenty dollars and belief that the defendant is about to leave the Province, an order will issue from a Judge or a Commissioner directing the apprehension of the defendant, and he may be held to bail. If the amount is under eighty dolars, a similar order may be obtained from a Magistrate.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be made to the official assignee; preferences vitiate the assignment.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit in a case involving a sum of more than twenty dollars, the amount due, and that the defendant has absconded, or is absent from the Province, the writ may issue, and the Sheriff will levy for the amount endorsed upon the writ, with costs amounting to one hundred and twenty dollars, in an action to recover eighty dollars or more; in an action to recover less than eighty dollars, twenty-eight dollars for costs.

BILLS OF SALE. Must be filed with the Registrar of Deeds of maker's district, or if a non-resident, where the goods are, together with an affidavit of grantor as to its execution and good faith. Those given as security for advances must show this fully by verified recital. A lien for three years may be renewed by filing a statement showing the amount due within thirty days, preceding the expiration of the term.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. (See Bills of Sale.)

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. Life estate to husband in property of deceased wife owned at the time of death.

DOWER. Life estate to widow of one-third husband's realty

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see Statute. Household furniture, implements of trade, cow, spinning and weaving implements, thirty days' provisions and fuel, two sheep, one hog, fodder for thirty days, religious books to the number of ten.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Sovereign's birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement as high as seven per cent. upon real estate security, or ten per cent. upon personal security. Usury: Penalty, loss of excess interest; judgments bear six per cent.

JUDGMENT. Must be registered in Registry of Deeds of district. A lien for six years, but may be revived by leave of court; executions may issue annually, remaining in force for one year.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. No specific statutory provisions.

LIMITATIONS. Twenty years: On judgments and contracts under seal. Six years: On contracts not under seal; for arrears or debt, rent or interest.

MARRIED WOMEN. May hold, acquire and dispose of her property as if unmaried; may contract and render herself liable in respect to her separate property; may sue or be sued. When consent of her husband registered she may trade under her own name.

REPLEVIN. No specific statutory provisions.

NEWFOUNDLAND

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. May be taken before a Registrar or his deputy, a Judge or Commissioner of Affidavits, of the Supreme Court or a Justice within the Province. Within English territory before a Commissioner of the Supreme Court of New Foundland, a Judge of a Court of Record under the Court's seal, a Mayor or a Chief Magistrate under the seal of the Corporation, or a Notary Public under his seal. In foreign countries in the same manner and also before a Consul or Vice-Consul.

AFFIDAVITS. In English territory may be taken before a Judge, Court, Notary Public or one authorized to take affidavits, or before an English Consul or Vice-Consul.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit satisfactory to a Supreme Court Judge showing a claim of over fifty dollars and that the defendant has disposed of his property or is about to do so or is about to leave the Province with intent to defraud or that his absence will prejudice the conduct of the case, or that he denies his property to his creditors, an order may be obtained directing the arrest of the defendant, and he may be held to bail or obliged to give surety in the discretion of the Judge.

ASSIGNMENTS. Every transfer of property in any way, shape or manner, made within two months before the insolvency to give a preference to an individual having notice thereof is void.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit to satisfaction of the Court showing indebtedness of over twenty dollars or where the damages are unliquidated, upon good cause the writ may issue; may be discharged by filing undertaking in double the amount.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. No provisions found.

DOWER. No provisions found.

EXEMPTIONS. Implements of trade, fishing boat, cooking utensils, clothes or bedding are exempt from attachment.

GARNISHMENT. No specific statutory provisions.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Sovereign's birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Six per cent., by express agreement any rate.

JUDGMENT. Local statute should be examined.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. Must be registered in the Registry Office within thirty days, and must be enforced within ninety days after completion.

LIMITATIONS. Twenty years: Upon a demise for rent or upon a bond or recognizance. Six years: Upon an award which is not a specialty, for an escape, for money levied, on the case other than slander, on account, for trespass, debt, detinue, trover and replevin, and in admiralty for seamen's wages. Four years: For trespass, assault, menace, battery, wounding or imprisonment. Two years: For slander, for a penalty, damages or a sum of money.

MARRIED WOMEN. May carry on separate business and have separate estate. Become of age at twenty-one.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-juridical day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-juridical day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. No specific statutory provisions.

MANITOBA

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Not used, affidavits take their place.

AFFIDAVITS. May be taken before a Notary Public or a Commissioner of affidavits, a Judge or Clerk of the County Court, a District Registrar or his Deputy; without the Province before a Commissioner appointed by the Lord Chancellor, a Notary under his seal of office, a Mayor or Chief Magistrate in Great Britain or Ireland, or in any foreign country under the corporation's seal, a Judge of a Superior Court in the English Dominions, an English Consular Agent in any foreign country, or a Commissioner of affidavits.

ARREST. No arrest for debt.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be made either to the public assignee, or if a majority of the claimants, having claims of at least $100, consent, to any other. A majority of creditors in both number and value having proved claims may substitute another assignee. Notice thereof must be published in the Manitoba Gazette and one other newspaper of the judicial district embracing the property. A duplicate of every assignment must be registered in the office of the County Court of the division where the assignor resides, or if a non-resident, in said office in the division where the personal property is, within ten days after execution. Assignments void for preferences must be recorded when including land under the provisions of the Registry and Real Property Acts.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit showing the cause of action, Judge's order for attachment may be obtained where the debtor has property within the Province not exempt and has departed with intent to defraud or to avoid arrest, or process, or conceals himself for the same purpose; where he is a non-resident, or where he is about to remove property from the Province with intent to hinder, delay or defraud his creditors. A lien from the time of delivery to the Sheriff. To bind real property a certificate of the issuance of the writ must be registered in the Register's or Land Title Office.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Must be filed with the County Court Clerk in the District where the property is within twenty days. A lien for two years may be renewed for two years as often as desired by filing a verified statement, showing the mortgagee's interest in the property, good faith and the amount due within thirty days preceding the expiration of the term; may be made to cover crops growing or to be grown for the purpose of securing the price of seed only where an affidavit is attached that is for such purpose. May be made to cover future advances to be used in business, where payment to be made in two years.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. Statutory provisions take its place.

DOWER. Does not exist. Statutory provisions take its place.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see Statute. Household furniture $500 in value, books to the number of twelve, axe, sword, gun, six traps, eleven months' provisions and fodder, three horses, mules or oxen, six cows, ten sheep, ten pigs, fifty chickens, etc., implements of trade $500 in value, seeds or plants necessary for planting eighty acres, books of a professional man. Homestead to a farmer, 160 acres of farm land occupied and used together with the appurtenances. To another, his habitation, $1,500 in value. Insurance on exempt property claims for board and lodgings are superior to exemptions.

GARNISHMENT. Debts or liabilities due to a debtor may be subjected to the writ, but in Kings Bench only after suit begun, though in County Court issuance of writ may be simultaneous with summons.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Sovereign's birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement any rate.

JUDGMENTS. A lien for two years from the date of registry of a certificate in the district, they may be renewed every two years. Judgments for less than forty dollars may not be registered.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. A verified statement must be registered within thirty days after completion and must be enforced within ninety days thereafter; workmen have a lien for thirty days' pay which has a preference over other liens and charges; no lien allowed for a claim under twenty dollars.

LIMITATIONS. Ten years: Upon a mortgage or for lien secured by a legacy or by land or its rent for the recovery of land or rent. Six years: For rent, interest or legacy payable out of land or rent or damages thereto.

MARRIED WOMEN. May hold and acquire property as if unmarried; her earnings are not subject to her husband's debts and control, and she may contract and sue and be sued with regard to her property as if unmarried; if of age, without husband or father's consent, she may contract or make herself liable with respect to her real property or devise her separate estate; she may insure her life; she may receive and convey lands from or to her husband directly; not entitled to dower, but takes the same share in husband's lands as she does in his personalty; become of age at twenty-one.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-juridical day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-juridical day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. An order may be obtained to deliver to the Sheriff, who will act thereupon, on filing an undertaking in double the value of the property, order returnable in ten days. In a case of wrongful taking or detention the Sheriff must replevy the property before serving the order.

May be taken before the Registrar of Titles, or his Deputy or a Stipendiary, Magistrate, or a Justice of the Peace, or a Judge, or Registrar of a Court under its seal, or a Notary Public within the Province. Within the English Territory before a Judge, Clerk or Registrar of a Court having a seal, a Notary Public, a Magistrate of a Town or District under his official seal, before a Commissioner appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor; without English Territory before an Ambassador, Charge d'Affaires, Minister, Consul, Consular Agent of Great Britain, or a Judge of a Court of Record; under the seal thereof of a Notary Public, but in the last case one of the foregoing English officers must certify to the official character of the Notary.

AFFIDAVITS. May be taken before a Commissioner, appointed by the Supreme Court, a Judge or a Registrar of the County Court, a Stipendiary, Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace within the Province. Within the Dominion of Canada before a Judge, Prothonotary, Notary Public or Commissioner authorized to take affidavits or the Clerk of the Court of Records, or a Stipendiary Magistrate. In English Territory before a Commissioner of affidavits in the English Supreme Court or a Superior Court Judge, in England, Ireland or Scotland, a County Court Judge, in England or Ireland, a Sheriff or his deputy in his country, in Scotland, a Notary Public under his seal of office, or the Mayor or Chief Magistrate under the Corporaton seal, in Great Britain or Ireland, or an English Colony, except Canada, a Judge of the Supreme Court of Record in a colony except Canada. In India before a Magistrate or Collector, but it is necessary that the Governor should certify as to the official character of such officer. In foreign countries before any Consul, Vice-Consul or Consular Agent of Great Britain, a Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or a Judge of the Supreme Court of Record.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit showing a case involving more than one hundred dollars and belief that the defendant is about to leave the Province with the intention of defrauding his creditors, or the plaintiff, a writ will issue and after judgment for amount in excess of said sum and affidavit that debtor has secretly or fraudulently conveyed property in order to prevent a levy, writ will also issue. Married women may be arrested for debt where they own property and collusion between the husband and plaintiff does not appear.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be recorded in the land Registry Office and the trustee must execute within seven days after execution by the debtor. Notice of the assignment must be published in the British Columbia Gazette, and some other daily paper of or near the town where the debtor dwells in the first issue of said papers after the expiration of ten days from the date of the assignment; a penalty of ten dollars per day for each day's delay after the issue of the proper number of the Gazette or newspaper. The claims should be verified and any security held must appear, must be filed with the trustee within a reasonable time.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit showing debt in excess of $100 the cause of action and facts showing belief that debtor has left the Province for a certain purpose or that his whereabouts is unknown, intending to defraud plaintiff or to avoid ordinary process of process, and then possessed property within the Province; to this affidavit must be annexed the affidavits of two others, who know the debtor, showing the facts on which their belief that the debtor has left the Province with above intent, a writ will then issue from a Judge of the Supreme Court. The writ is also a summons to defendant, the method of service is provided for by the Judge. Where no appearance or special bail is put in by the debtor a sale is directed to be made. The debtor's money controlled by a third party may be attached by a court order obtained by filing an affidavit at any time or after summons issued.

BILLS OF SALE. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Must be filed in the County Court Registry of the District where the property is not less than twenty-one days after execution. An affidavit must be annexed thereto, showing the time that it was made, the residence, and occupation of the person executing it, and also of the attesting witnesses, and further the affidavit of the mortgagee or his agent that the mortgagor was indebted as stated, or in the case of a sale that the sale was in good faith for value, a lien for five years renewable by filing an affidavit stating that they are an existing lien.

CONDITIONAL SALES. A copy of the memorandum, etc., within twenty-one days after delivery of the goods must be given to the buyer. Within five days after request a statement of the sum due on such sale must be furnished. The buyer may redeem within twenty days after goods re-taken on payment of the entire amount due.
